

Florida STARTALK 2014 for Teachers of Chinese University of Florida, Gainesville

The College of Education at the University of Florida is offering its 6th annual residential STARTALK program for teachers of Chinese language grades K-16.

<http://education.ufl.edu/startalk/>

Dates: June 4th-June 13th online; June 15th-June 21st on campus

Arrival date and orientation: Sunday, June 15th

Location: University of Florida, Gainesville. Participants stay on campus during the 1-week residential portion of the program.

Cost: Cost of travel may be reimbursed for up to $200. Cost of tuition and housing is covered by the STARTALK grant. Lunch is provided during class days. No dinner provided.

Program Details

- Earn 2 graduate credits for a course, "Learning Centered Approach to Foreign Language Instruction."
- Learn hands-on activities based on Chinese holidays, food, art, song, and dance to use in your foreign language classrooms.
- Engage in a four-day practicum at a local Boys and Girls club and teach activities that you have developed.
- Enjoy cultural activities.

HOW CAN I APPLY? Go to <http://education.ufl.edu/startalk/> where you will find the link to the application on the application page. Spaces fill up quickly, so apply now! Applications are processed as they are received and notifications are sent out each Friday.

QUESTIONS: Please contact Patricia Jacobs, Director at: patrjac@ufl.edu for further information.