Georgia Chinese Language Educators

Dear teachers and students, the First Chinese Poetry Declamation Contest joint organized by Georgia Chinese Language Educators (GCLE), Yage Poetry Club and GSU Chinese Program has successfully concluded! Please see the evaluation results below. Let us join in congratulating the award-winning and participating students. A heartfelt thanks to all the teachers who recommended students to participate. Special thanks to Professor He from the University of North Georgia and Professor Li from Georgia State University for judging the entries. Gratitude also goes to the teachers of the Yage Poetry Society for preparing the poetry collection for the students and sponsoring this competition. We also deeply appreciate the hard work of the GCLE board members in designing the posters, rules, and scoring standards for the competition.

We will invite the award-winning students to perform their poetry recitations during the GCLE annual meeting, which will be held on the afternoon of February 23, 2025. During the event, prizes and certificates will be awarded to the winning students, and certificates will also be presented to the participating students and the teachers who recommended them. Specific timing will be announced in January, but please mark your calendars for the afternoon of February 23, 2025. We look forward to celebrating the New Year together and honoring these students' appreciation and love for Chinese poetry and culture.

Regards,

GCLE Board of Directors
